

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EVALUATION REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2008

Association of Government Accountants
Nashville Chapter
P.O Box 198025
Nashville, TN 37219-9998

September 10, 2008

Dear Ms. Collett

I have evaluated the balance sheet of the Association of Government Accountants, Nashville Chapter, as of June 30, 2008, and the related operating statement and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Chapter's management. My responsibility is to note discrepancies in the financial statements based on my evaluation.

I conducted my evaluation to look at records supporting the amounts in the financial statements, to consider internal controls over certain functions, and to inform you of any discrepancies that came to my attention. I believe that my evaluation provides a reasonable basis for my conclusion.

Based on my evaluation, the financial statements referred to above are substantially correct as presented.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Association of Government Accountants, National Office and Nashville Chapter, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Sincerely,

Jeff Hughes, CFE

Notes to the Financial Statements

June 30, 2008
(UNAUDITED)

Note 1—Reporting Entity

The Association of Government Accountants (AGA) is an international, professional, not-for-profit organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. A majority of its members are engaged in governmental auditing, accounting, budgeting, and related management activities. AGA's objectives include education in government-related fields, the advancement of financial management principles and standards, and the promotion of professional and ethical standards. The Nashville Chapter includes members from Nashville, Tennessee and surrounding communities.

Note 2—Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying financial statements of the Association of Government Accountants, Nashville Chapter, have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as prescribed by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The operations are accounted for using the accrual basis of accounting and the economic resources measurement focus. All assets and liabilities are included on the statement of financial position. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Note 3—Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are defined as short-term, highly liquid investments that are both readily convertible to known amounts of cash and so near to their maturity that they present insignificant risk of changes in value because of changes in interest rates. This cash and cash equivalents classification includes demand deposits of $27,869.98. At June 30, 2008, the carrying amount of the chapter's deposits was $49,105.84, and the bank balance was $49,183.48. This bank balance was insured.

Note 4—Investments

The Association of Government Accountants, Nashville Chapter had short-term investments as follows:

	June 30, 2008
Certificates of deposit	$ 21,235.86
Total short-term investments	$ 21,235.86

Cost approximates fair value for these short-term investments. The average annual yield was 4.01% for the year ended June 30, 2008.
