

AGA Chapter Meeting Minutes

January 9, 2017

Submitted by Donna Jewell

The Nashville Area Chapter held its meeting at the Double Tree Hotel on Monday, January 09, 2017.

President Angela McElrath-Prosser called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Melvin Jones gave the invocation. Angela announced that the minutes from the last luncheon are on the website and would be considered approved if no one had any changes.

Angela recognized the members who had brought guests to the luncheon and each member introduced their accompanying guests. She also recognized new members in attendance.

Angela introduced the individuals at the head table: Reen Baskin, today's speaker; Terry Cowles; Debi Moss, Program Co-Chair; and Eugene Hampton, Treasurer.

Debi Moss introduced the speaker, Reen Baskin, Deputy Director of Customer Focused Government. Her topic was Alternative Workplace Solutions. In appreciation for Ms. Baskin's speaking to the chapter, the chapter will make a donation to The Junior League of Nashville, her charity of choice.

Angela then called for announcements from the various committees.

Announcements

CGFM

Michael Winston announced that CGFM Study Guides are available to members, free of charge. In addition, between now and the end of April, the Chapter will reimburse three members who take an exam for their exam fees.

Community Service

Emily Gray reminded us that January's community service project is Book'Em. Donation drop boxes are on the 18th floor of the Snodgrass Tower with Veronica Coleman and on the 16th floor of the Polk Building with Maya Angelova.

Education

Anna Nickell announced that the Winter Seminar now has a waiting list. We will have two chances for webinars in February. On February 8th, the topic will be GASB; on February 22nd, the topic will be Fraud.

Door Prize

Aaron Kistler won the $25 door prize.

There was no further business and Angela declared the meeting adjourned.
