The Nashville Area Chapter held its monthly luncheon meeting at the DoubleTree Hotel on Monday, February 3, 2014. The luncheon was a joint meeting which included members from the Certified Fraud Examiners and The Institute of Internal Auditors.

President Rusty Lacy called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Melvin Jones gave the invocation.

Rusty announced that the minutes from the January luncheon are on the website and would be considered approved if no one had any changes.

Rusty introduced the individuals at the head table: Melvin Jones, Melinda Crutchfield, Chris Schiro, Barry Monson and Phil Williams, speaker.

Rusty recognized Melinda Crutchfield, President of the Certified Fraud Examiners association. Melinda expressed her thanks and appreciation for the joint meeting and introduced the guests she had brought. Rusty then recognized the President from The Institute of Internal Auditors, Chris Schiro. Mr. Schiro expressed his thanks for the joint meeting and announced upcoming events for that organization.

Rusty recognized the AGA members who had brought guests to the luncheon and each member introduced their accompanying guests.

Barry Monson introduced the speaker, Phil Williams, Chief Investigative Reporter for Nashville News Channel 5. Mr. Williams delivered a presentation on his investigative stories and the similarities of his work and the work done by auditors. In appreciation for Mr. Williams speaking to the joint luncheon, the chapter will make a donation to his charity of choice, Investigative Reporters and Editors Organization.
