

AGA Chapter Meeting Minutes

November 3, 2014

Submitted by Janet Stewart

The Nashville Area AGA Chapter held its monthly luncheon meeting at the Double Tree Hotel on Monday, November 3, 2014.

President Michelle Earhart called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Gerry Boaz gave the invocation.

Michelle recognized all veterans in attendance by asking them to stand. The audience gave a round of applause thanking them for their dedication and service to our country.

Michelle announced that the minutes from the last luncheon, October 14th, is on the website and would be considered approved if no one had any changes.

Michelle introduced the individuals at the head table: Many-Bears Grinder, Commissioner Tennessee Department of Veteran Affairs, speaker; Commissioner Rebecca Hunter; Drew Sadler, Pamela Marks and Nathan Abbott.

Michelle recognized the members who had brought guests to the luncheon and each member introduced their accompanying guests.

Commissioner Rebecca Hunter, introduced the speaker, Commissioner Many-Bears Grinder. Commissioner Grinder spoke on the topic of Integrity and gave us a good reminder of its importance in our profession. In appreciation for Commissioner Grinder speaking to the chapter, the chapter will make a $50 donation to A Soldier's Child Foundation, her charity of choice.

Drew Sadler announced the winners of the CGFM drawings and the dates for the prep course. Please visit the Nashville AGA Chapter website for the details.

The Program and Membership Committees announced for the membership to be on the lookout for a network mixer coming soon. Please check your email for the announcement.

Pamela Marks from the Community Service Committee announced the Fisher House project for November. A wish list was placed on all the tables of the items that could be donated.

Door Prize

Donna Jewell won the $25 door prize. Rachelle Cabading won the free luncheon.

There was no further business and Michelle declared the meeting adjourned.
