The Nashville Area Chapter held a luncheon meeting at the Double Tree Hotel and via live streaming on Zoom, on Monday, September 8, 2025.

President Teryn McNeal called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone to the first meeting of the 25-26 program year. Melvin Jones gave the invocation.

Teryn announced that the minutes from the last luncheon are on the website and would be considered approved if no one had any changes.

Teryn recognized and welcomed 11 new members (Jonna Raddock, Julie Davis-Shelton, Aletha Crawford, Sean Durm, Colby Johnson, Sam Alzoubi, Matthew Bailey, Kelly Odom, Jordan Maloney, Olidia Guevara-Ramon, and Erica Hogeland) since the last meeting and 11 first-time guests (Alexis Zellers, Caleb Guthery, Chloe Grzesiak, Patrick Dooley, Eric Crawford, Anna Phillips, Matthew Dewar, Elle Wagner, Jenneen Reed, Annabella Gelmetti, and Kayla Eisman) attending this luncheon meeting.

Katie Armstrong introduced our speaker, Jason Mumpower, TN Comptroller of the Treasury, who spoke about "An Update on Tennessee." This session qualified for 1 hour of CPE. As a thank you for speaking to the chapter, AGA Nashville Chapter will be making a monetary donation to a charitable organization of Jason's choice. Jason selected King University.

Brannon Garrett won the in-person door prize and Natalie Massengale won the virtual door prize.

Teryn called for announcements from the various committees.

Kelly Armes, community service co-chair, announced that the September community service project is collecting school supplies and monetary donations for Alex Green Elementary.

Mary Anne Queen, community service co-chair, announced that there will be an in-person volunteer community service event on October 4, 2025, at Cheekwood Harvest.

There was no further business and Teryn adjourned the meeting.
